

An Invitation to Dr. Petra Hölscher Seminar

Dr. Petra Hölscher

Dr. Petra Hölscher is the chief curator of the jewelry room at Die Neue Sammlung Pinakothek der Moderne Munich, Germany.

The Danner Foundation recently donated 100 year of its jewelry collection to Pinakothek der Moderne, and in response to this, the Danner Rotunde, the jewelry room was opened.

At this seminar, she will talk about the history of the collections of the Danner Foundation and Die Neue Sammlung, and her role at the museum as a curator.

This will be a wonderful opportunity to hear her lecture on what contemporary jewelry is and how it is positioned.

This seminar was made possible with the cooperation of Mr. Takayoshi Terajima. He is an artist based in Munich, Germany, and his work is also in the museum's collections.

He will be present with Dr. Hölscher on the day of seminar.
